

What do you do if there aren't sewers? Sewers take our waste and ensure its treated safely. But in some parts of the world, sewers don't exist. Here's one solution: worms! Tiger worms eat the poop in the pit of a toilet, helping take care of the waste in a safe and environmentally-friendly way.

Learn More

Visit us online at waterforpeople.org/kids